'Blithe Spirit' Premieres Tonight

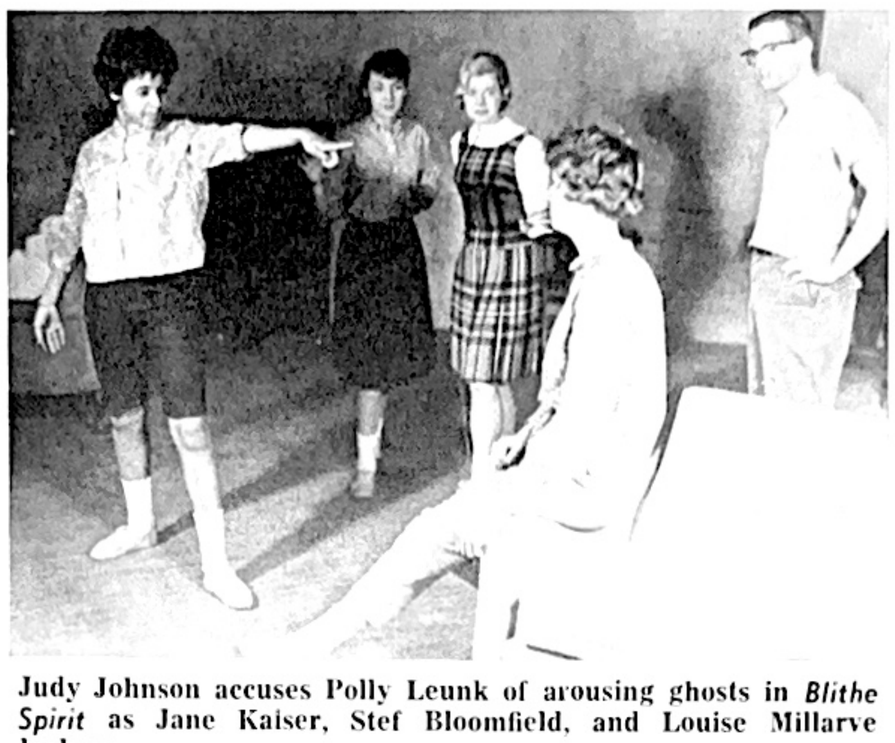
Spring to Offer Popular Play

Though Blithe Spirit will play at Shaker for only two nights, it has had considerably longer runs at other famous theaters. The world premiere occurred in London, where it attained such popularity that it ran for 1,997 performances — nearly five years — while three other companies toured England.

The New York run extended to 657 performances—82 weeks—chalking up the long-run record for any Coward play in New York. The original New York cast had Clifton Webb as Charles and Peggy Wood as Ruth.

Award-Winner

The movie version, produced in England, had Rex Harrison as Charles and Constance Cummings as Ruth. In 1955 a television spectacular of Blithe Spirit starred Coward himself as Charles and Claudette Colbert as Ruth. In addition to universal critical acclaim, Blithe Spirit won the New York Critics' Circle Award for the best play of the season by a foreign author.



Judy Johnson accuses Polly Leunk of arousing ghosts in Blithe Spirit as Jane Kaiser, Stef Bloomfield, and Louise Millarve look on.

Noel Coward Comedy Portrays Eternal Triangle With Twist

Janie Kaiser and Louise Millarve will play the roles of the ghosts of the first and second wives of Charles Condomine in Noel Coward's comedy hit, Blithe Spirit, on May 4 and 5 in the Large Auditorium.

In Blithe Spirit Coward turns his celebrated lightness of touch to the supernatural. It is not the scary supernatural, however, but the humorous. His ghosts are on the whole rather agreeable creatures. Audiences in New York and London, where Blithe Spirit enjoyed huge success, found the spirits of the farce pleasantly up-to-date and companionable.

Troubled Novelist

The troubles of Charles Condomine, the skeptical novelist of the play, start when he arranges a seance to get copy for a new novel. Mme. Arcati, the medium, piqued that he should doubt her powers, decides to demonstrate her gift in a manner the novelist will never forget. She summons the spirit of Elvira, his first wife. Ruth, the second Mrs. Condomine, is already jealous of the departed Elvira's superior charms when Elvira brings about Ruth's death in a motor car crash. After Mme. Arcati materializes the ghost of the second wife, the situation shapes itself into the eternal triangle—but with ghosts at two of the angles!

In addition to Janie and Louise in the roles of Elvira and Ruth respectively, Blithe Spirit will feature Stef Bloomfield in the part of the phantom-beset Condomine, and Judy Johnson as the madcap medium, Mme. Arcati. Other roles have been assigned to Polly Leunk, Dorothy Schindler, and Art Stone. The play will be directed and managed by Kelly Danford and Dale Kittle.

By the way, although we are sure you already know, the title Blithe Spirit is taken from the opening lines of Shelley's "Ode to a Skylark."

Advanced Ticket Sale Aims for Record Goal; Prizes to Be Awarded to Winning Homerooms

Football tickets for the 1962-63 season will go on advanced sale Friday, May 11, through Monday, May 21. As in the past, seven tickets will be sold for six dollars and individual tickets will be sold for one dollar each.

The tickets will be valid for the following games: South, home; Holy Name, home; Euclid, home; Heights, away; Lakewood, home; Shaw, away; Parma-Valley Forge, home.

The goal this year, set by the athletic department, is $7000. Last year an all-time high of $6200 was collected.

Seven thousand dollars is needed because a state law forbids the boards of education to allocate funds for an athletic program beyond the daily physical education classes. Football is the only fall sport that can pay for itself and the excess gate returns must cover the expenses of all the other fall sports.

This year, as in previous sales, homerooms selling the most tickets will receive cash prizes. The first place homeroom will receive $15. The second place homeroom will get $10. The homeroom selling the third highest number of tickets will get $5.

Those ordering seven tickets for six dollars will get their tickets by mail just before the start of the season. Checks should be made payable to Shaker Heights High School.

New Editorial Board to Appear On '62-'63 Shakerite Masthead

A famous newspaper adage states: Old editors never die; they just get replaced. Accordingly, the Shakerite's six old senior editors will soon be replaced by three eager new incoming editors, along with Jules Lodish, Dick Prentke, and Howie Schulman.

Heading the editorial board for next year's paper will be Jules Lodish, who this year served as Junior Editor. This is the second year that the Shakerite staff has had an editor-in-chief.

Jules will be assisted by five editors: Deana Astle, Barbara Epstein, Cory Forman, Jim Lowe, and Howard Schulman. This year Cory is Circulation Manager of the paper.

The new Sports Editor for next year is Dick Prentke, who will be assisted by Junior Sports Editor Mike Liff. This year Dick is Junior Sports Editor. Next year's Junior Editor will be Bill Kahrl, who will be Editor-in-Chief in his senior year. Stuart Zetzer will be Business Manager.

Previously the organization of the editorial staff of the paper called for six editors of equal rank. By assigning one person to be responsible for the overall organization of the staff, more efficient work resulted. The rest of the original system remains, including the rotation of issues among the various editors.

Crew Prepares Elaborate Set For Blithe Spirit Production

With the opening production of Blithe Spirit tonight on the Shaker stage, many new firsts will be inaugurated.

Among these will be the first time that the new lighting system is to be used in a full length production. Carl Armstrong is in charge of the lighting system, installed last fall.

This is also the first time that the new control and projection booth will be used. With the use of this booth a new phenomenon will take place. Because of the revamped controls, crew members in the booth will be able to see what is taking place on stage for the first time.

The stage crew, directed by Dale Kittle, has been working for weeks preparing the stage for the play. Mr. Kittle, pleased with the work of the crew, said that "more work has been done by fewer people." The crew is headed by Mike Logsdon, stage manager; Dan Kuhn, sound technician; and Carl Armstrong, light manager.

Biggest Set

Described by Mr. Kittle as "the biggest set" in recent years, the stage has many elaborate props. Included are many rigged props that fly through the air, giving a ghostly atmosphere to the comedy. The prop crew, headed by Jim Douthitt, has gathered and prepared these items. The set, for the first time in many years, includes a ceiling which provides more realism.

Family Spring Concert Is Goal of Music Department

By Julie Grodin

The sound of music will fill the air as the A Cappella Choir, the Chanticleers, and the Concert Choir, all under the direction of Reynold C. Ellis, present the annual Spring Concert of Shaker Heights High School on Sunday, May 13.

The concert will take place in the large auditorium at 4:00. Tickets will be sold for 75 cents. Inasmuch as the concert is to be given on Mother's Day, students are encouraged to attend the program with their families.

The A Cappella Choir, consisting of approximately 100 members, will perform among others Water Ripple and Flow by Taylor and Brazilian Psalm by Berger. He, Watching Over Israel by Mendelssohn, The Nightingale by Tschaikovsky, and the ever popular This Is My Country arranged by Waring are among the numbers to be presented by the Concert Choir. The Chanticleers will sing a group of popular show tunes.

As a special feature of the concert, the A Cappella Choir and the Concert Choir will blend their voices in two numbers. Together the groups will sing The Battle Hymn of the Republic and The Heavens Are Telling, a selection taken from The Creation by Joseph Haydn.

This concert will be one of many for some of the participating choral groups, who have scheduled several concerts for both the elementary schools and junior highs in Shaker Heights.

Open House, Luncheon, Concert Celebrate Shaker's 50th Year

This year marks the Golden Anniversary of the Shaker Heights Schools system. A series of events during the year will commemorate the fifty years of progress during which one of the finest city secondary school systems was evolved from a two-room schoolhouse.

The celebration of the Golden Anniversary, in which there has been an emphasis on what is new in the Shaker schools system, has already commenced. A community-wide open house at the new Administration Building gave the citizens of Shaker Heights an opportunity to view the place from which the schools are managed.

Teacher Recognition

During a luncheon on May 26, in the Senior High's new cafeteria, the services of the teachers in the system will be recognized. The luncheon will also honor all the people who help to operate the schools. All of the people mentioned above who have served fifteen years or more will receive awards.

The celebration did not overlook the accomplishments of the students. In a 50th Anniversary Science and Arts Fair held at Byron Junior High on April 11-12, the pupils showed their ingenuity and artistry.

The junior and senior high schools will combine their efforts to display their musical talents. The combined bands will give an instrumental concert in the Woodbury Boys' Gym on May 18. The following week, the choirs will perform in the Senior High Auditorium. If the concerts are successful this year, they may become an annual event.

There will be a special PTA Council Golden Anniversary Luncheon at Plymouth Church on May 10. The Chanticleers, one of Shaker's musical groups, are going to sing for it.

Elementary Celebrations

The elementary schools are participating in the celebration of the 50th anniversary by having open houses which are sometimes combined with PTA meetings. They held their music festival on April 5 at the Senior High School.

Ticket Troubles

Recently in Student Council there has been a typically disorganized attempt to revamp the listless activity ticket. Part of the relocation of funds is necessary because of changing financial conditions; for instance, Shakerite needs money to replace the income from tax stamp drives. However, the change is being made chiefly to make the ticket "more attractive" to students.

Because of this aim it is inevitable that there be confusion and violent disagreement. The fact is that, no matter what is done, the activity ticket will never be an "attractive" investment in the financial sense. To those interested in a good buy, any money voluntarily spent for girls' athletics, assemblies, Student Council, or class dues is unnecessary. No matter how it is sugar-coated, buying a ticket can only be looked at as a charitable—though obligatory—action. Of course, we think that the ticket should be as good a buy as possible, but it is only a waste of time to argue that it still isn't worth the money.

Along the same line some people contend that the quality of the Shakerite and assemblies, should be improved to encourage greater sales. What an original idea! Do these people think that the activities are not trying to improve? This unrealistic charge neglects the fact that it is the students' attitude that needs more improving than the assemblies. We don't mean this editorial to be a trite plea for school spirit, but we also don't want various activities to be a scapegoat for a lack of school loyalty.

Chessmen Enjoy Winning Season In Interschool Chess League

Interscholastic matches, intramural tournaments, and individual competition in the city-wide junior championships make up the main part of Shaker Chess Club activities this year.

The chess team has played seven matches. They won over Berea, St. Joseph, and Chagrin Falls; they drew Heights and Shaw; they lost to Perry and Euclid. These matches are part of the Greater Cleveland Interscholastic Chess League competition.

The main team members are captain Julian Rosenman, Sam Cassen, Chuck Edwards, Allan Kohrman, Ladden Porozynski, and Jay Starkoff.

The future looks bright for the chess team. Since all 43 members of the chess club are either sophomores or juniors, the entire team will be returning to play next year. Anybody interested in chess or anxious to learn to play is welcome to join. The club meets every Friday in room 105.

In the six round, round-robin tournament among the chess club members, Rosenman came in first, Porozynski second. The city-wide junior championship in which some players from Shaker will compete will be a five round tournament.

The club officers are President Allan Kohrman, Vice-president Loren Rose, and Treasurer John Adams. The faculty sponsor is Peter Massad.

Math, Science Clubs Unite for Lectures

By Bill Kahrl

The Math and Science Clubs have joined forces to present a series of five high-level, technological lectures. College students are delivering the lectures in association with a new lecture bureau at the Case Institute of Technology.

Any interested students may attend the lectures, held every Thursday after school in room 101. Topics included in the series, which began April 26 and will continue through May 24, are "Newton's Three Laws of Motion and Space Travel," "Descriptive Astronomy," and "Data Processing, an Introduction to Computers."

E.R.A.

The lecture bureau itself is a new development at Case. It is run by volunteer student members of the E.R.A. (the initials stand for Enthusiasm, Recognition, and Action). Although a non-profit organization, its main purposes, according to the program's student co-ordinator Fred D. Gemlick, are to interest more high school students in a technical career by showing them the wide diversity of interests tion, and Action. Although a that are present in modern technology, and to give the student lecturers experience in teaching a class.

Krantz, Kronenberg Lead Bridge Club Over Heights' Foes

Roy Bleiweiss, Barry Krantz, Hank Kronenberg, and Ed Wertheim last week led the Shaker bridge team to victory in its interscholastic match against Heights High School.

At first table Krantz and Kronenberg trounced their opponents 3680 to 140. Bleiweiss and Wertheim with similar success won 1500 to 440. Since it had been agreed that duplicate bridge would not be played because of the time involved, Barry and Hank were aided by luck but in fact did not yield a trick in the first two hands.

King of Nonsense, 'A Cook for Mr. General,' Scheduled Entertainment for Month of May

By Stuart Friedman

May, the month between Spring Vacation and Summer Recess, is notable chiefly for its lack of holidays. The only genuine holiday during May, in fact, is Memorial Day, but that hardly counts, since it is so close to June. (Chances are it was scheduled for June but by accident got shoved a few days early.) To help rectify this appalling situation, The Shakerite recommends one or more of the following days as suitable for relief from school.

Next Monday, for example, would make a perfect jour de conge for any culture-loving Shakerite, since it is the birthday of two musicians and a poet —Joe Brahms, Pete Tchaikovsky, and Bob Browning. This would be a fine opportunity to catch "A Cook for Mr. General," a military farce being presented at the Play House Euclid-77th Theatre through May 13.

On May 12 Shakerites can celebrate the 150th birthday of the King of Nonsense, Edward Lear, by going to the Heights Art Theatre to see two delightful pieces of nonsense: Peter Seller's "Only Two Can Play," and a French film, "Ball Play." Both of these films are well worth seeing.

On Sunday, May 13, there will be a huge book-burning party, as thousands of French students will gather to celebrate Alphonse Daudet's 122nd birthday. Chief among the victims is expected to be the ever-popular Lettres de Mon Moulin. Less sadistic students may find their pleasure in seeing the Play House production of "Five Finger Exercise" at the Drury Theatre, which closes that night. Although it has nothing to do with French, it is an excellent and well-received play.

Melba's Birthday

May 19 is the 103rd birthday of singer Nellie Melba, and students wishing to celebrate may choose either "Sing Along with Jonathon and Darlene Edwards" or Joan Sutherland's new recording of Rigoletto. The Sing-along album offers the listener 27 minutes of the most uproarious and outrageous singing in the history of music, and is most heartily recommended as a conversation piece for parties or other get-togethers.

To commemorate the birthday of English philospher John Stuart Mill, the Heights Art Theatre will be presenting the film "Last Year at Marienbad," a critically-acclaimed camera study of love. At the same time, the Continental Art Theatre will be ending its run of "Murder She Said," the film based on the Agatha Christie mystery novel.

Certainly one of these days would be appropriate for a short holiday that could break the monotony of school. Arise, ye Workers of the School! Demand your Rights to a holiday! On the other hand, why not just use the ones we already have?

May 16 is, according to the Old Farmer's Almanac, the 281st anniversary of "the first Parisian female Can-Can dancers." Who the Can-Can dancers in Paris were before then is not stated, but at any rate, this seems to be an excellent opportunity to celebrate by indulging in some of the new records. One of the most sonically spectacular recordings in years is the new Command issue of "Great Themes from Hit Films," featuring, among others, "Tonight" West Side Story, "La Dolce Vita," "Moon River," and "Tender Is the Night."

A Cappella Choir Cuts Record; Spring Concert to Launch Sale

"Shaker in Harmony," a hi-fidelity long-playing record cut by the A Cappella Choir, is soon to be launched on a widespread selling campaign. The record, the choir's major project in this year between musicals, is being professionally produced and will appear in an originally designed jacket.

The selections featured in the album range from the lilting beauty of Brahms' Love Songs and the earthy beat of American spirituals to the familiar strains of Shaker's Alma Mater.

When asked to comment on the choir's project, Reynold Ellis replied, "For our first venture into recorded music we went to the Delta Record Company, a subsidiary of Columbia Records. The choir recorded on a Saturday morning, and the results of the session were superb. Richard Wooley, the representative of Delta Records, was so impressed that he ordered extra copies of the record to be distributed to prospective customers of his company. All in all, I would say that this is a top recording of a top choir."

Spring Sales

The profits from the sale of "Shaker in Harmony" are to be donated to the school's Organ Fund. The choir hopes to aid Shaker's efforts in purchasing an organ for use at Honor Day and assemblies by making a significant contribution to the Fund. The record will first be sold at the Choir's bi-annual Spring Concert, this year to be held Sunday, May 13, at 4:00 in the Large Auditorium.

Rightists Group Abolishes Administration As Students Remodel Election Procedures

By Rusty Spaeth

Hank Kronenberg, famous Shakerite editor and patron of the graphic arts, will have a birthday on October 15 next autumn, but even before autumn, Shakerites will be clawing each other to be first in line at the polls to vote for their president.

Voting and campaigning for student offices will take place during the summer instead of the traditional early spring. The change of election date came before the Student Standstill in the form of an ultimatum from the Administrative Offices. The Council was under no pressure to approve the measure, but counselors and advisers stood at the rear of the Social Room during the voting with the school record and college recommendation for each representative in one hand and and a lighted match in the other.

Abolition of Administration

Brilliant Shakerite reporters, investigating this change in election date, discovered fantastic and astounding information. Most earth-shaking, reporters learned that it was not the decision of the school administration at all to change election procedure. There is no school administration. There has been no school administration since a fateful day last semester.

Fanatical Group

A fanatical group of ultra-right students have pulled off an intricately-planned coup. During Exam Week, squads of these Rightists dressed in overalls and other workman-like clothing moved silently but quickly on key points in the school. A detail of twelve of these students was at first pinned down at the school office by a hail of empty Metracool cans and blackboard erasers, but seizing the P.A. system and telephone switchboard, the Rightists attempted to starve out the heroic resistance.

Rampant Rightists

In other parts of the school, the Rightists met only scattered opposition. Construction noise masked the cries of pockets of resisting staff members in remote areas of the school. Occasional rumbling echoed down the halls, however, as teachers emptied wastebaskets on patrols of the Rightist students who were attempting to climb the third floor steps to capture the all-important Chemistry Lab. Mopping up was finished as the last defenders in the office put down their stapling guns and raised their hands above their heads after a week of battle.

Shakerite Prevails

Though the Rightists have infiltrated the Student Standstill, though they run the Office insidiously disguised as secretaries, and though they have pillaged the Snack Bar, the Rightists still have not gained control of the Shakerite. They have allowed the printing of this paper if the Shakerite will guarantee a favor in return: Rolly Simon, blond editor, has consented to allow the Rightists to hold the school elections on her birthday July 25, a national holiday (Rolly Simon Birthday Tribute Festival), in order to lend prestige to the Rightists' revolutionary movement. This favor alone stands between the printing of this paper, and the final silencing of Shaker High.

Please vote on July 25.

Stochers Tie One But Win First Two With Parma Highs

The Shaker golf team, with hopes of regaining the Lake Erie League championship taken away last year, has thus far played three matches in the still infant season. So far, the Shaker golfers have demonstrated their strength by tying Heights, defending L.E.L. champions.

Matches with Parma and Valley Forge at Ridgewood, on April 12, signified the start of the season. The Redmen topped the Raiders 9½-2½, while Valley Forge was defeated 11-1 for Shaker's first victory.

Shaker's first home match was against the Heights Tigers on April 26, at Shaker Country Club. Heights, who wrestled the league championship from the Raiders last year, and with three lettermen returning from last years team, are one of Shaker's strongest opponents this year. Coach Ed Stoch believes that Cleveland Heights is the best golf team in the district.

Against Heights, Shaker captain Jeff Gerth shot a 72 while the teams tied 12-12. Gerth now owns the record of having recorded the lowest score a Shaker team member has ever shot on the Shaker Country Club course.

Twenty-three varsity matches still remain to be played with the highlights of the season to be the remaining matches with Heights, the district match on May 18, and the state match the following week.

In the immediate future, the Raiders have three matches coming up next Tuesday afternoon. The Stochers will take on the Cleveland Heights Tigers at Hawthorne Valley, Wickliffe at Pine Ridge, and Beechwood at Beechmont.

John Kuenhold passes the baton to Craig Seabrook in the mile relay at Lakewood on April 26. The Raiders lost the meet, 66-52.

Raiders Shatter Records in Winning 20th Hilltop Meet

On Tuesday, April 24, the Raider track team bested Brush in the second dual meet of the season, while falling to the Lakewood Rangers two days later. Shaker followed this defeat with their 20th Hilltop victory.

In the field events, Shaker again captured the broad jump, as Jim McGeorge leaped to victory. Bob Taylor added momentum to the Raider's drive for a win, by taking the 440-yard event with a 50-3 seconds clocking, setting a new track record.

Reed Morgan also posted a new track record, as he ran the mile in 4.34.2. In the 100-yard dash, Gregg Druian tied the school and track records with a time of 9.9 seconds.

The Ricemen traveled to the home of the Lakewood Rangers on Thursday, April 26, only to fall to a strong Ranger team, 66-52.

In the 440-yard contest, Bob Taylor set a new school record with a time of 49.0 seconds.

Although scattered showers plagued the annual Hilltop Meet Saturday, April 28, the Ricemen seemed unaffected by the inclement weather, as they emerged victorious over the University and Heights High School runners. This year, U.S. hosted the teams.

Shaker started the meet with a win in the broad jump and captured the last event, the mile relay. In between these, the Raiders piled up enough points to compile a 731/5 total.

Shaker Nine Stops Cardinals; Goetz and Fager Take Wins

Rebounding after two successive losses, Shaker's baseball Raiders defeated Shaw's Cardinals last Thursday, April 26, by a score of 5-3 on the Shaker diamond. At that time the Raiders stood 3-2 in the L.E.L. and 1-2 in independent competition.

Jerry Goetz pitched three innings of shutout relief to gain the Shaw victory with defensive help from center fielder Steve Abrams, who made one running catch in deep center and on another occasion threw out a Shaw runner trying to score from third on a fly. Three of Shaker's runs came on a bases-loaded single by Dave Gordon. With the score 3-3 in the fifth inning, Tom Humphrey doubled and came in on Ron Mesnick's single. In the next inning, Bob Rawson tripled home Larry Lukasik for Shaker's final run.

Before this game, the Raiders had lost to Benedictine, 6-1, and Parma, 3-1. Against Parma, the Shaker nine managed only three hits and their only score came when Abrams led off the game with a triple and stole home later in the inning.

In the Heights game, Goetz pitched a one-hitter and Lukasik tripled home two runs before scoring on Mesnick's single as Shaker racked up a 3-0 victory.

Against Lakewood, Pete Fager pitched a two-hitter and coasted home with a 7-1 victory when the Raiders exploded for five runs in the fifth inning. After loading the bases, the Raiders scored one run on a walk, another on an error, and a third on a passed ball. The last two runs came home on Humphrey's single.

The Raiders are now well past the half-way point in L.E.L. competition. The Raiders clash with U.S. tomorrow and Shaw Monday.

Raider Netmen Beat Gilmour, University

The Red Raider Racketeers started off the season in traditional fashion by winning their first two matches, against Gilmour Academy and University School.

On April 23, the Raiders met Gilmour at home and shut them out by a 5-0 score. Against University School, the netmen's first three matches brought them victory, as the Raiders won by a 3-2 score. The three singles men, Tom Hardesty, Cary Zucker, and Jim Williams, won their matches as both doubles teams lost their matches.

Coach Jack Pickering is looking forward to another winning season for the Raiders in mastering their competition this spring.

Meet U.S. Again

The Raiders will meet U.S. again at the end of the season in their last match of the year. Shaker will play only two L.E.L. members this spring, Shaw on April 30 and Cleveland Heights on May 3.
